

t

Traning on evaluation, post-stroke treatment

Description

Strokes are the leading causes of functional disability in adults. Motor function disorders are frequently encountered post-stroke consequences. The recovery of post stroke function, will depend a lot on the quality of the Rehabilitation care. It is therefore necessary to regularly strengthen the capacities Of rehabilitation actor in order to improve the quantity of their service

CONCERNED PUBLIC

Physiotherapists working in rehabilitation center in Africa

Improving the quality of care for stroke patients

Expected results

- Correctly assess post-stroke motor function using tools relevant
- Identify goals for physiotherapy treatment
- Implement an appropriate treatment plan based on a logical clinical reasoning
- Know how to choose physiotherapy methods taking into account the patient's clinical progress

Training Content

- General notions of motor consequences of stroke
- ICF Assessment of Stroke Consequences
- Use of some assessment tools for motor function and post stroke activity limitations
- Concepts on different concepts and techniques of post-stroke neuromotor rehabilitation both empirical and new based on EMB
- Use of different rehabilitation approaches for the management of different motor impairments and activity limitations (walking, gripping) post stroke

Training Flow

- Adapted schedules
- Effective and practical manuals: We are committed to providing specially designed documentation about all our training courses. These are both materials used during training, but also real work tools for post-training.
- Interactive theoretical courses
- Practical demonstrations between participants
- Practical demonstrations with patients

Trainers

The training is provided by Professor Toussaint G. Kpadonou and Mr. Jean Olouka of Benin.

Duration of training

The training will take place over three (3) days.

Penalty

A training certificate signed by the OADCPH and the Trainers will be issued to each participant at the end.

Registrations

- Registration is already open and will continue until 31 July 2016.
- The cost of training is 280,000 CFA francs.

Other information

One week before the start of the training, you will receive a complete package of practical information including:

- the location of the training
- the schedules
- the access plan
- means of transport
- the equipment to be provided

Contact

OADCPH, Lomé - Togo
Route d'Aneho-Baguida
BP: 3268 Lomé
E-mail: info@oadcph.org
masse.niang@oadcph.org
Tel: (+228) 91021136

To learn more about OADCPH, please visit our website at www.oadcph.org